

The Croton Conservation Advisory Council presents

The Green Living Series

Croton Free Library 7:00 – 8:30 pm
Free Admission - Refreshments Will Be Served

Tuesday, March 18

Ruth Clausen, Award-Winning Garden Writer and Horticultural Expert

Ruth's latest book, subtitled, The Prettiest Annuals, Perennials, Bulbs and Shrubs That Deer Don't Eat, is a handbook and guide for gardeners who live in deer country. Ruth will present common, but beautiful, deer-resistant plants, along with suitable companions.

50 Beautiful
Deer-Resistant Plants

Tuesday, April 29

Heaven is a Garden: Designing Serene
Outdoor Spaces

Jan Johnsen, Landscape Designer, Author and Educator

Come celebrate the publication of Croton Resident Jan Johnsen's new book! Jan will present a PowerPoint of simplicity, sanctuary and delight in the garden. Learn about the power spot in a landscape, why rocks are such great assets in your garden, how water adds magic, and why blue gardens are so popular.

Tuesday, May 20

Lucille Munz, Director

Come learn about Hilltop Hanover Farm and Environmental Center, located in nearby Yorktown Heights. Lucille will share what this unique and wonderful County farm is doing to educate our community about local food production. She will present a demonstration of their activities and bring in vegetables from the farm.

Introduction to Hilltop Hanover Farm

Tuesday, June 10th

Restoring Habitats at Croton Point

Anne Swaim, Executive Director of Saw Mill River Audubon
Local residents and conservationists from our region are working together to improve the wildlife habitats at Croton Point Park, a significant year-round bird habitat. Join us for beautiful photographs, a discussion of the current park issues, and some simple ways you can help protect and restore this public treasure.

