

Croton-on-Hudson

Conservation Advisory Council

The Conservation Advisory Council presents an occasional series of lectures, film screenings and community discussions to foster an increased understanding of the nature of environmental problems and issues and support for their solutions

Screening of the film

Echo: Theodore Cornu and His Times in the Hudson River Valley

to be shown at the Croton Free Library, Ottinger Room,

October 17th, 7:00 to 8:30 PM.

The film's filmmaker, Timothy Auld, and Ed Rondthaler will join the screening for a discussion of Cornu, Croton's original environmentalist.

For more information on what you can do as a Croton resident to preserve and protect our natural environment, see: www.village.croton-on-hudson.ny.us (click on "Conservation Advisory Council" on the "Boards & Committees" page)